

Engineering Division Licensing, Insurance and Bonding Requirements

October 27, 2009

Licensing

The following license types are able to obtain a permit to conduct work in the city Right of Way:

License Type	Description
E100	A General Engineering contractor. May perform all work in the City ROW.
S210	A General Plumbing Contractor. May furnish materials, fixtures and labor to extend service from a building out to the main water, sewer or gas pipeline (must have an S310 license to perform work in the roadway)
S260	A General Concrete Contractor (can only perform concrete work)
S310	An Excavation and Grading Contractor (May perform all work in the City ROW)
S390	A Sewer and Waste Water Pipeline Contractor (May perform all work in the City ROW)
S400	An Asphalt Paving Contractor (May perform all work in the City ROW)
S410	A Pipeline and Conduit Contractor (May perform all work in the City ROW)

To get the complete definitions of these contractors please visit the State Department of Professional Licensing web site at www.dopl.utah.gov/licensing/contracting.html

Bond

All contractors are required to have a current $25,000 permit and license bond with the city (see Ogden City Municipal Code Title 7, Chapter 5, Section 14 for more details).

Insurance

All contractors are required to have $1,000,000 in liability insurance with Ogden City as a named insured (see Ogden City Municipal Code Title 7, Chapter 5, Section 14 for more details).